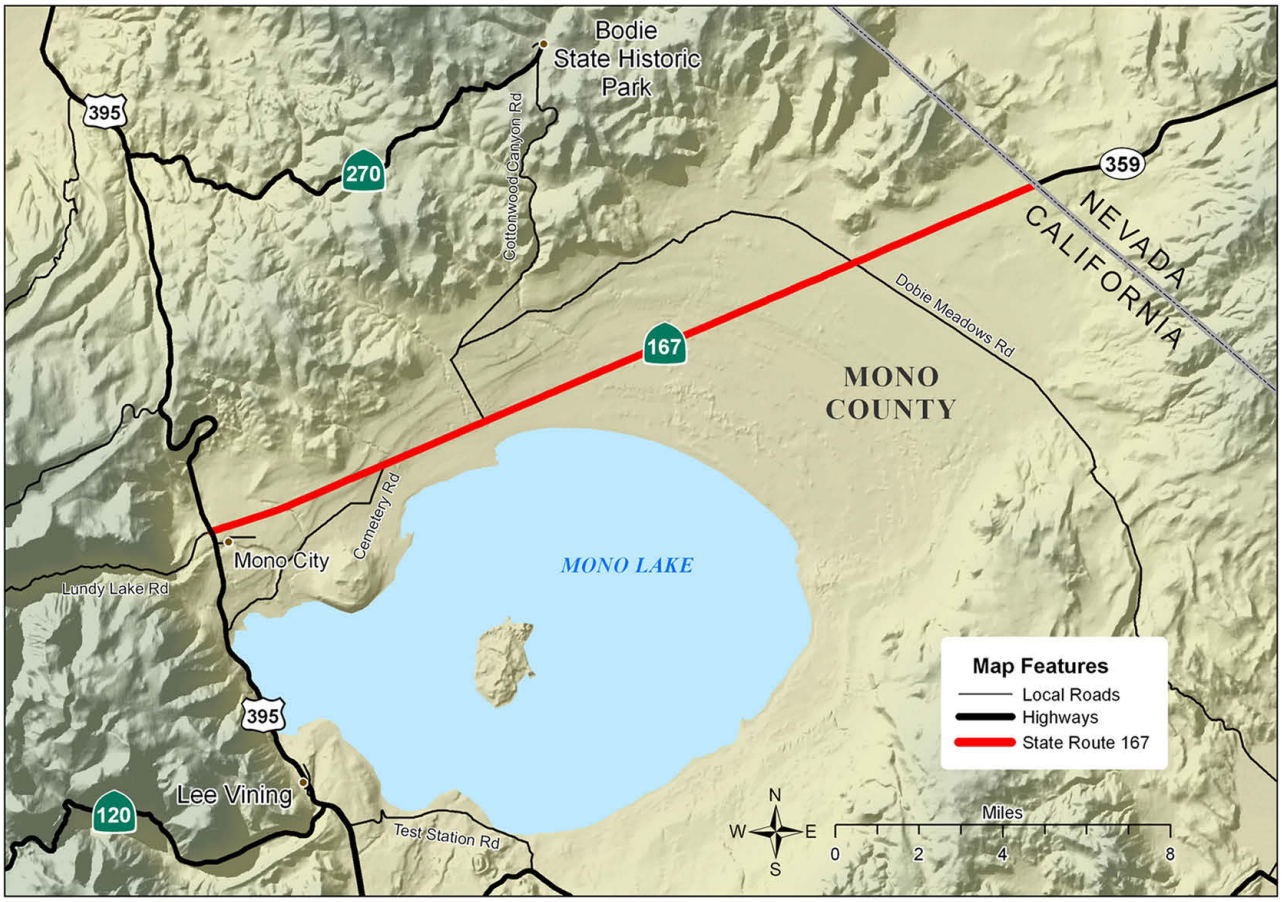
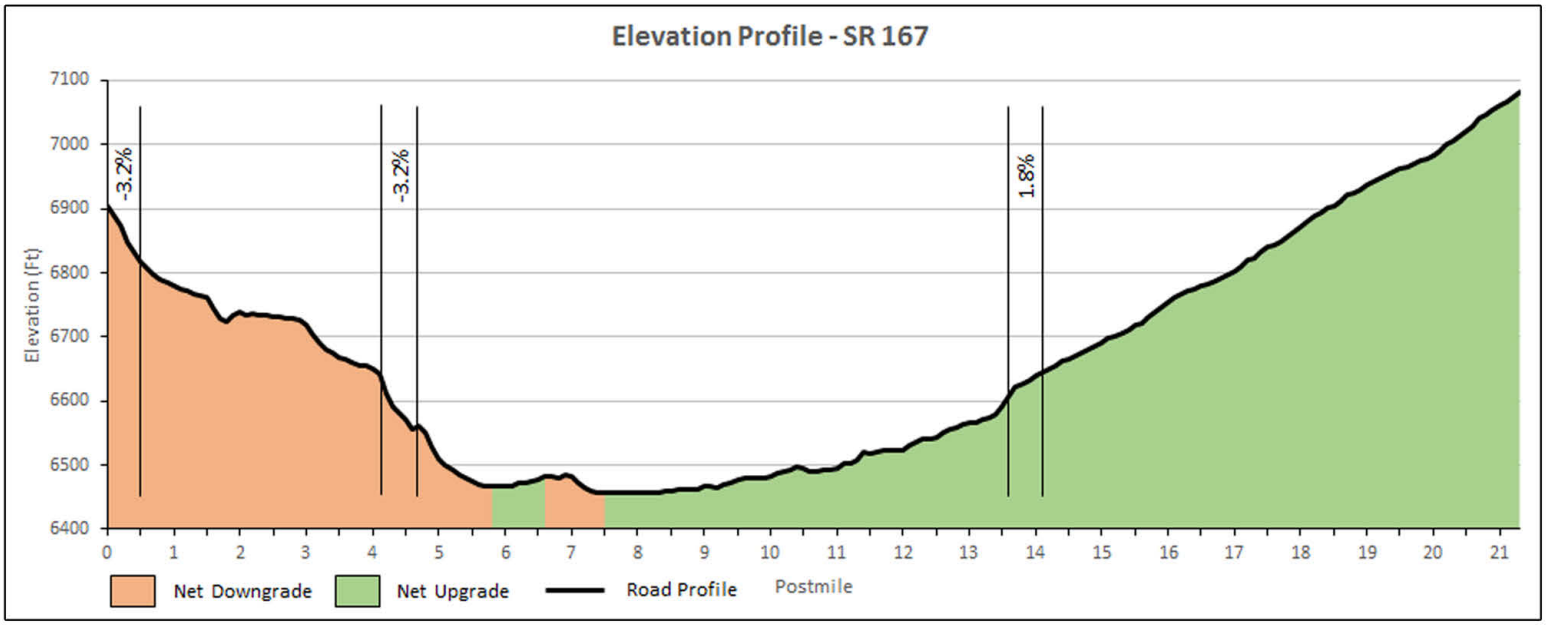
Caltrans District 9 Bicycle Guide
SR 167



Description:

State Route 167, also known as Pole Line Road, departs from US 395 heading east. It is a straight, 2-lane highway with narrow shoulders and gentle grades. Traffic is light and the highway travels through desert highland with scenic vistas of Mono Lake to the south. SR 167 continues past the State border as Nevada Route 359.

Services:


None.