

FY 2006/2007 Awarded Transportation Planning Grants Transit Professional Development

CT District	Grant Recipient/ Sub-recipient	Project Title	County	Project Description	Amount
3	Sacramento Area Council of Governments/ Yolo County Transportation District	Professional Development and Transit Internships	Yolo	The Yolo County Transportation District will provide multiple internship opportunities for university students in the transit planning field and provide training for the professional development of the planning staff.	$46,478
3	Sacramento Area Council of Governments/ Yolo County Transportation District	Effectively Managing Transit Emergencies	Yolo	This project will provide funding for the Yolo County Transportation District to host a course titled, "Effectively Managing Transit Emergencies". Staff from the Transportation Safety Institute will conduct this course. Participants will learn how to develop and implement transit emergency management and response programs. A separate grant program is providing funding for the trainers.	$10,106
5	Association of Monterey Bay Area Governments (AMBAG)	Monterey Bay Transit Planning Rotational Intern Program	Monterey, Santa Cruz	AMBAG plans to fund three positions for transportation planning interns who will rotate between Monterey-Salinas Transit, Santa Cruz Metropolitan Transit District, and the Transportation Agency for Monterey County (TAMC). The interns will spend four months at each agency for a one-year assignment.	$45,000
10	San Joaquin Association of Governments/ San Joaquin Regional Transit District	Transit Professional Development	San Joaquin	The San Joaquin Regional Transit District proposes to provide training for its professional employees: Geographic Information System training (mapping software), planning courses, and a student internship program.	$38,688
Total Transit Professional Development					$140,272